

The Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs presents its compliments to Heads of Mission accredited to Oslo, and has the honour to communicate new measures enacted by the Norwegian Government to prevent transmission of the coronavirus.

New travel advice for avoiding infection can be found here (in Norwegian): <https://helsenorge.no/koronavirus/reise>

Individuals who have been outside the Nordic countries are to stay in their homes for 14 days after arriving home to Norway, regardless of whether they have symptoms.

Travellers from countries outside the Nordic region who are not residents of Norway will be asked to return. The alternative for these travellers is quarantine. Travellers with symptoms will be isolated.

This means that everyone presently staying in Norway and who has been in a country outside the Nordic region in the past 14 days is to be quarantined. This policy has retroactive effect and applies to all arrivals since Thursday 27 February.

The Ministry will revert to the question of the implementation of these measures for foreign missions accredited to Norway, and their personnel.

The Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Heads of Mission accredited to Oslo the assurance of its highest consideration.
