

Table of fees payable at Norway's diplomatic and consular missions 2025

Provision of fee-paying services listed	Fee payable
	NOK	Foreign currency equivalent, to be determined by mission headed by career officer in accordance with section 6
A. Passports, immigration matters and citizenship
1. Passport applications	See section 2
2. Services provided under the Immigration Regulations	See section 2
3. Processing an application for Norwegian nationality	See section 2
B. Solemnisation of marriage at a Norwegian mission	2 628 NOK
C. Maritime matters
1. Issue of a provisional certificate of nationality under section 5, third paragraph, of the Norwegian Maritime Code	657 NOK
2. Issue of a provisional trading certificate or safety certificate or an endorsement extending the validity of a certificate under section 37 of the Regulations of 22 December 2014 No. 1893 on supervision and certificates for Norwegian ships and mobile offshore units (applies to cargo ships, passenger ships, barges, and mobile offshore units, and to fishing vessels of 15 metres in overall length and upwards)	657 NOK
3. Confirmation that a complete application has been received for temporary service in a position for which a certificate of competency is required (Certificate of Receipt of Application (CRA)) under section 86 of the Regulations of 22 December 2011 No. 1523 on qualifications and certificates for seafarers	657 NOK
D. Financial assistance
Provision of a loan or assistance with money transfers 10% of the amount,
but not less than	657 NOK
and not more than	5 256 NOK
E. Notarial matters
Issuing a certificate and attesting signatures	328 NOK

F. Issue of a temporary certificate of registration under section 3-14, see section 3-9, of the Aviation Act	5 256 NOK
G. The following hourly rate may be charged for assistance over a period exceeding five hours in connection with commercial matters: In every case, a cost estimate is to be prepared and sent to the client for approval before the work is started.	1 314 NOK
H. Payment for assistance with events, from the first hour: In every case, a cost estimate is to be prepared and sent to the client for approval before the work is started.	657 NOK
I. Surcharges and payment for extra costs	See sections 3–4	